

GRADE 2 SOCIAL STUDIES CURRICULUM MAP 2007-2008

September	October	November	December	January
Rights and Responsibilities 2:6 Students will recognize the need for rules and laws in their school or community. This will be taught through common stories and real life examples. Current Events 2:9 Current events will be discussed through reading Weekly Reader and daily discussions.	Rights and Responsibilities 2:6 Determine the difference between a right and a responsibility. Given a sample conflict students will choose an appropriate solution to resolve the conflict. Current Events 2:9 Current events will be discussed through reading Weekly Reader and daily discussions.	History 2:1 Read stories and discuss the history and traditions of Thanksgiving and relate current traditions to past traditions.	2.2 Maps Interpret and construct maps to include human-made and natural characteristics , a compass rose and a map key. History 2:3 Read stories and discuss Christmas. Compare and contrast Christmas traditions to those of other countries and cultures.	4 Economics 2:5 Students will learn what the term economics means. The difference between needs and wants. Discuss what a budget is.
February	March	April	May	June
Economics 2:5 Students will learn the terms producer and consumer. They will learn how they are consumers.	Economics 2:5 Students will learn the terms producer and consumer. They will learn how they are consumers. Culture Unit Students collaboratively investigate cultural elements and traditions of ethnic cultures.	Economics 2:5 Students will learn the terms producer and consumer. They will learn how they are consumers. Economics 2:7 The students will review needs and wants. They will learn how families prioritize needs and wants.	Economics 2:7 The students will review needs and wants. They will learn how families prioritize needs and wants. Economics 2:8 The students will learn the difference between goods and services and consumers and producers. They will understand how they play a role in our economy. This will be reinforced during our second grade sale.	See May