

GRADE 7 HISTORY CURRICULUM MAP 2007-2008

September	October	November	December	January
7:1 & 7:2 History: Students will identify, research, and analyze past and current issues, events, and decisions, within the continent of Europe. 7:3 & 7:4 Geography Map, describe, and explain physical regions within the continent of Europe and/or possible connections to the U.S. Use latitude and longitude lines of measurement in order to discover countries/regions. 7:6 Civics Describe, analyze and explain governments involving selected countries in Europe, and how they interact with the U.S. 7:7 & 7:8 Economics Describe, explain, discuss, and analyze the economic systems or forces of European countries and how they are comparable to the U.S., and the effect on the U.S. economy. 7:9 Individual & Groups in Society Discuss/Explain the causes, consequences, and geography, civic, economic, and historical contexts of local, regional, and national global issues and events.	7:1 & 7:2 History: Students will identify, research, and analyze past and current issues, events, and decisions, within the continent of Europe. 7:3 & 7:4 Geography Map, describe, and explain physical regions within the continent of Europe and/or possible connections to the U.S. Use latitude and longitude lines of measurement in order to discover countries/regions. 7:6 Civics Describe, analyze and explain governments involving selected countries in Europe, and how they interact with the U.S. 7:7 & 7:8 Economics Describe, explain, discuss, and analyze the economic systems or forces of European countries and how they are comparable to the U.S., and the effect on the U.S. economy. 7:9 Individual & Groups in Society Discuss/Explain the causes, consequences, and geography, civic, economic, and historical contexts of local, regional, and national global issues and events.	7:1 & 7:2 History: Students will identify, research, and analyze past and current issues, events, and decisions, within the continent of Europe. 7:3 & 7:4 Geography Map, describe, and explain physical regions within the continent of Europe and/or possible connections to the U.S. Use latitude and longitude lines of measurement in order to discover countries/regions. 7:6 Civics Describe, analyze and explain governments involving selected countries in Europe, and how they interact with the U.S. 7:7 & 7:8 Economics Describe, explain, discuss, and analyze the economic systems or forces of European countries and how they are comparable to the U.S., and the effect on the U.S. economy. 7:9 Individual & Groups in Society Discuss/Explain the causes, consequences, and geography, civic, economic, and historical contexts of local, regional, and national global issues and events.	7:1 & 7:2 History: Students will identify, research, and analyze past and current issues, events, and decisions, within the continent of Europe. 7:3 & 7:4 Geography Map, describe, and explain physical regions within the continent of Europe and/or possible connections to the U.S. Use latitude and longitude lines of measurement in order to discover countries/regions. 7:6 Civics Describe, analyze and explain governments involving selected countries in Europe, and how they interact with the U.S. 7:7 & 7:8 Economics Describe, explain, discuss, and analyze the economic systems or forces of European countries and how they are comparable to the U.S., and the effect on the U.S. economy. 7:9 Individual & Groups in Society Discuss/Explain the causes, consequences, and geography, civic, economic, and historical contexts of local, regional, and national global issues and events.	7:1 & 7:2 History: Students will identify, research, and analyze past and current issues, events, and decisions, within the continent of Africa. 7:3 & 7:4 Geography Map, describe, and explain physical regions within the continent of Africa and/or possible connections to the U.S. Use latitude and longitude lines of measurement in order to discover countries/regions. 7:6 Civics Describe, analyze and explain governments involving selected countries in Africa, and how they interact with the U.S. 7:7 & 7:8 Economics Describe, explain, discuss, and analyze the economic systems or forces of African countries and how they are comparable to the U.S., and the effect on the U.S. economy. 7:9 Individual & Groups in Society Discuss/Explain the causes, consequences, and geography, civic, economic, and historical contexts of local, regional, and national global issues and events.

February	March	April	May	June
7:1 & 7:2 History: Students will identify, research, and analyze past and current issues, events, and decisions, within the continent of Africa. 7:3 & 7:4 Geography Map, describe, and explain physical regions within the continent of Africa and/or possible connections to the U.S. Use latitude and longitude lines of measurement in order to discover countries/regions. 7:6 Civics Describe, analyze and explain governments involving selected countries in Africa, and how they interact with the U.S. 7:7 & 7:8 Economics Describe, explain, discuss, and analyze the economic systems or forces of African countries and how they are comparable to the U.S., and the effect on the U.S. economy. 7:9 Individual & Groups in Society Discuss/Explain the causes, consequences, and geography, civic, economic, and historical contexts of local, regional, and national global issues and events.	7:1 & 7:2 History: Students will identify, research, and analyze past and current issues, events, and decisions, within the continent of Africa. 7:3 & 7:4 Geography Map, describe, and explain physical regions within the continent of Africa and/or possible connections to the U.S. Use latitude and longitude lines of measurement in order to discover countries/regions. 7:6 Civics Describe, analyze and explain governments involving selected countries in Africa, and how they interact with the U.S. 7:7 & 7:8 Economics Describe, explain, discuss, and analyze the economic systems or forces of African countries and how they are comparable to the U.S., and the effect on the U.S. economy. 7:9 Individual & Groups in Society Discuss/Explain the causes, consequences, and geography, civic, economic, and historical contexts of local, regional, and national global issues and events.	7:1 & 7:2 History: Students will identify, research, and analyze past and current issues, events, and decisions, within the continent of Africa and Asia. 7:3 & 7:4 Geography Map, describe, and explain physical regions within the continents of Africa and Asia and/or possible connections to the U.S. Use latitude and longitude lines of measurement in order to discover countries/regions. 7:6 Civics Describe, analyze and explain governments involving selected countries in Africa and Asia, and how they interact with the U.S. 7:7 & 7:8 Economics Describe, explain, discuss, and analyze the economic systems or forces of African and Asian countries and how they are comparable to the U.S., and the effect on the U.S. economy. 7:9 Individual & Groups in Society Discuss/Explain the causes, consequences, and geography, civic, economic, and historical contexts of local, regional, and national global issues and events.	7:1 & 7:2 History: Students will identify, research, and analyze past and current issues, events, and decisions, within the continent of Asia. 7:3 & 7:4 Geography Map, describe, and explain physical regions within the continents of Asia and/or possible connections to the U.S. Use latitude and longitude lines of measurement in order to discover countries/regions. 7:6 Civics Describe, analyze and explain governments involving selected countries in Asia, and how they interact with the U.S. 7:7 & 7:8 Economics Describe, explain, discuss, and analyze the economic systems or forces of Asian countries and how they are comparable to the U.S., and the effect on the U.S. economy. 7:9 Individual & Groups in Society Discuss/Explain the causes, consequences, and geography, civic, economic, and historical contexts of local, regional, and national global issues and events.	7:1 & 7:2 History: Students will identify, research, and analyze past and current issues, events, and decisions, within the continent of Asia. 7:3 & 7:4 Geography Map, describe, and explain physical regions within the continents of Asia and/or possible connections to the U.S. Use latitude and longitude lines of measurement in order to discover countries/regions. 7:6 Civics Describe, analyze and explain governments involving selected countries in Asia, and how they interact with the U.S. 7:7 & 7:8 Economics Describe, explain, discuss, and analyze the economic systems or forces of Asian countries and how they are comparable to the U.S., and the effect on the U.S. economy. 7:9 Individual & Groups in Society Discuss/Explain the causes, consequences, and geography, civic, economic, and historical contexts of local, regional, and national global issues and events.