

GRADE 7 LANGUAGE ARTS CURRICULUM MAP 2008-2009

September	October	November	December	January
KC4 7:1 Reading- TLW read, view, and listen to classic and contemporary short stories to analyze plot, conflict, characterization, and theme. KC4 7:7 Writing- TLW read, listen to, view, perform, and create poetry using the poetic elements of form, sound, and theme, and figurative language such as onomatopoeia, hyperbole, and metaphor. KC4 7:9 Writing- TLW process write a memoir. KC4 7:10 Writing- TLW correctly spell words independently in written work and correctly use content-related vocabulary words. KC4 7:11 Speaking- TLW will design and deliver a presentation on a selected topic to influence an audience, using appropriate speaking strategies.	KC4 7:1 Reading- TLW read, view, and listen to classic and contemporary short stories to analyze plot, conflict, characterization, and theme. KC4 7:8 Writing- TLW write a response for a scenario prompt based on a universal theme, supporting ideas with examples from personal experience and related texts. KC4 7:9 Writing- TLW process write a memoir. KC4 7:10 Writing- TLW correctly spell words independently in written work and correctly use content-related vocabulary words.	KC4 7:1 Reading- TLW read, view, and listen to classic and contemporary short stories to analyze plot, conflict, characterization, and theme. KC4 7:3 Reading- TLW read, view, and listen to multicultural narrative text to interpret elements of the author's craft, including flashback and foreshadowing. KC4 7:9 Writing- TLW process write a memoir. KC4 7:10 Writing- TLW correctly spell words independently in written work and correctly use content-related vocabulary words.	KC4 7:1 Reading- TLW read, view, and listen to classic and contemporary short stories to analyze plot, conflict, characterization, and theme. KC4 7:10 Writing- TLW correctly spell words independently in written work and correctly use content-related vocabulary words. KC4 7:12 Listening- TLW critically listen to and/ or view various media messages to differentiate and evaluate persuasive techniques. KC4 7:11 Speaking- TLW will design and deliver a presentation on a selected topic to influence an audience, using appropriate speaking strategies. KC4 7:8 Writing- TLW write a response for a scenario prompt based on a universal theme, supporting ideas with examples from personal experience and related texts.	KC4 7:1 Reading- TLW read, view, and listen to classic and contemporary short stories to analyze plot, conflict, characterization, and theme. KC4 7:6 Writing- TLW process write a mystery, myth/legend, or drama, focusing on ideas, organization, voice and conventions. KC4 7:10 Writing- TLW correctly spell words independently in written work and correctly use content-related vocabulary words.

February	March	April	May	June
KC4 7:1 Reading- TLW read, view, and listen to classic and contemporary short stories to analyze plot, conflict, characterization, and theme. KC4 7:2 Reading- TLW read and summarize informational text, using text structure and graphic organizers. KC4 7:4 Reading- TLW read a novel, using text cues and affixes to determine the meaning of unknown vocabulary	KC4 7:1 Reading- TLW read, view, and listen to classic and contemporary short stories to analyze plot, conflict, characterization, and theme. KC4 7:7 Writing- TLW read, listen to, view, perform, and create poetry using the poetic elements of form, sound, and theme, and figurative language such as onomatopoeia, hyperbole, and metaphor. KC4 7:9 Writing- TLW process write a memoir. KC4 7:10 Writing- TLW correctly spell words independently in written work and correctly use content-related vocabulary words.	KC4 7:1 Reading- TLW read, view, and listen to classic and contemporary short stories to analyze plot, conflict, characterization, and theme. KC4 7:3 Reading- TLW read, view, and listen to multicultural narrative text to interpret elements of the author’s craft, including flashback and foreshadowing. KC4 7:4 Reading- TLW read a novel, using text cues and affixes to determine the meaning of unknown vocabulary. KC4 7:10 Writing- TLW correctly spell words independently in written work and correctly use content-related vocabulary words	KC4 7:2 Reading- TLW read and summarize informational text, using text structure and graphic organizers. KC4 7:5 Writing- TLW process write a persuasive essay, intended for a specific audience, that contains a thesis statement related to a global, community or school event. KC4 7:10 Writing- TLW correctly spell words independently in written work and correctly use content-related vocabulary words. KC4 7:12 Listening- TLW critically listen to and/ or view various media messages to differentiate and evaluate persuasive techniques. KC4 7:13 Research- TLW collaboratively research a pertinent and timely issue/ problem, generate questions, create a thesis, and gather data to individually evaluate, select, and justify a possible solution.	KC4 7:1 Reading- TLW read, view, and listen to classic and contemporary short stories to analyze plot, conflict, characterization, and theme. KC4 7:3 Reading- TLW read, view, and listen to multicultural narrative text to interpret elements of the author’s craft, including flashback and foreshadowing. KC4 7:4 Reading- TLW read a novel, using text cues and affixes to determine the meaning of unknown vocabulary. KC4 7:5 Writing- TLW process write a persuasive essay, intended for a specific audience, that contains a thesis statement related to a global, community or school event. KC4 7:13 Research- TLW collaboratively research a pertinent and timely issue/ problem, generate questions, create a thesis, and gather data to individually evaluate, select, and justify a possible solution.